A Call to Participate in a Demonstration in Support of Students and Women's Protests in Iran

On Thursday 22 June 2006 at Dam Circle in Amsterdam
From 18:00 Until 21:00

In past few weeks, along with women's demonstration in Tehran , students' protests have been on the rise in Universities all over Iran. These protests which initially started in Tehran have been rapidly spreading to other cities such as Marand, Birjand, Hamedan, Ahvaz, Tabriz and Mashhad. The recent demonstrations were held to protest the arrests and imprisonments of student activists. Slogans such as "Political Prisoners Must be Freed", "Death to Talibans", "Death to Dictatorship", "Death to Khamenehie", "Justice, Equality, Freedom", "Students would Die, but Never Surrender" have been repeated over and over again in different Universities all over the country. With the continuation of students' protests, especially with the upcoming 28 of June (the anniversary of bloody attack on students' movement in 1999 in Tehran), the regime's assault and repression on students has been increased. Attacks, beatings and assaults on students have resulted in imprisonment of 7 and abduction of many others.

The recent gathering of women on 12 June in Tehran in protest to the anti women laws of Islamic Republic and to fight for their basic rights, was savagely attacked and resulted in assaults and arrests of more than hundred people.

In solidarity with students' struggle, and revolutionary workers movement, in solidarity with women's and all other oppressed masses of Iran, we the under signed will gather together on Thursday 22 of June 2006 between the hours of 18:00 until 21:00 at Dam Circle in Amsterdam to convey the voices of revolutionary protests of Iranian people to all the progressive people of Holland and the people of the world, because those voices are never broadcast in the main western media.

The victory of these struggles is in its solidarity and unity with toiling masses and workers revolutionary movements, women, students, intellectuals and all other progressive forces.

In this gathering, with our slogans “Unity, Struggle, Victory”, once again we will emphasize on the necessity of solidarity in struggle.

Down with Islamic Republic of Iran!
Long Live the Solidarity of Revolutionary Forces!
Long Live Socialism!
Long Live Communism
